

Edilson Esteira
2nd year
seminary student

- Edilson has to live with his aunt because there is not enough space in the current buildings
- Many people have to live elsewhere and commute and this disrupts the learning process
- He looks forward to being able to reside in one space and to having a games field to exercise between study